I'm going to tell you three things that are not #alternative facts

- Two examples of where we struggle
- Why we need interpretive labor/labour
- Why applied research matters

INCITE! changed the conversation

Interpretive Labor

- Imaginatively identify with an/Other
- Sympathetically identify with an/Other
- Power
- Inequality

- Emphasis on labor
- Who has to work to understand, and who doesn't

Threats

Public-private partnerships

- Cutting costs, shifting burdens, growing problems
- Shareholders over citizens/profit motive

Inequality

Consolidation of wealth

Legitimization of racism and misogyny

What does applied research look like

- Content
- Interdisciplinary and holistic
- Relationships
- Public engagement
- Publishing
- Activism
- Facts forward
