

ShantiWorks

Equality Peace Justice

Acknowledgement to Country: We acknowledge the elders on this land, the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation. We acknowledge that these have not been ceded, nor has a treaty ever been reached. We acknowledge that Aboriginal people continue to resist state sanctioned oppression and violence every day in a multitude of ways.

24/7/2017 and 25/7/2017 - Coordinated Community Response

26/7/2017 and 27/7/2017 - Working with Perpetrators of Violence Against Women

On the 24th and 26th, there will be a gathering of delegates from 5:30-7:30pm

Please note the date change due to scheduling issues.

Venue: Cliftons Melbourne: Level 1, 440 Collins St Melbourne, Vic, 3000

Wheelchair access is available at this venue.

Cost: The price for 2 days is $650. Please be aware that the Duluth training model requires participants commit to the two days. For participants who wish to attend the Gathering of Delegates, there will be an additional cost of $50 per session.

Scott Miller has worked for the Domestic Abuse Intervention Programs since 2000. Scott coordinates Duluth's Coordinated Community Response to domestic violence which is currently under a demonstration project funded by OVW called the Blueprint for Safety. Serving as both system advocate and coordinator of the men's nonviolence program, he is instrumental in the evolving work being done in Duluth.

For more information, please visit:

<http://shantiworks.com.au/duluth/>

domestic abuse
intervention programs

Home of the Duluth Model

Social Change to End Violence Against Women

